PREFACE

In 1947, the Texas Legislature passed a law allowing each city the opportunity to vote "for" or "against" civil service for fire and police. The citizens of San Angelo elected the civil service system for fire and police in 1948; and in the fall of 1948, the Civil Service Commission was established in San Angelo.

The Civil Service Commission has established rules and procedures governing its operation in compliance with the state law, which is found in the Texas Local Government Code Chapter 143.

The commission shall provide for open, competitive and free entrance examinations to provide eligibility lists for beginning positions in the fire and police departments. The examinations are open to each person who makes a proper application and meets the requirements prescribed by this chapter.

As you embark on your quest to become a police officer, we wish you success, remembering that many individuals have preceded you and are yet to follow you and that each individual has an equal chance to succeed.

* Notice ****

WRITTEN EXAMINATION: The written examination tests applicants in reading comprehension and writing skills related to police work. Each applicant's grade on the written examination is to be based on a maximum grade of 100% determined entirely by the correctness of answers to the questions. Minimum passing grade is 70% and each applicant must pass the examination in order to be placed on the eligibility list. The grade that goes on the eligibility list is computed by the applicant's written examination grade being added to any veterans' preference points earned. Your exam will be graded within a week of the exam and you will be notified by mail.

CREDIT CHECK: Each applicant will have his/her credit checked by a background investigator. If you have any problems with your credit, it is suggested that you talk with the credit bureau and try to correct the problem.

BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION: Each candidate will have a complete background check by the police department's background investigators. Your background will include a driver's license check, criminal history, and inquiries to people who know you and your character such as references, neighbors, etc.

CRIMINAL RECORD: Candidate must not have been convicted of a misdemeanor offense above the grade of a Class C Misdemeanor within the last ten years.

DRIVING RECORD: During the last three years, an individual must not have: 1) a DWI conviction; 2) more than three moving violations; or 3) more than two moving violations and one chargeable accident.

POLYGRAPH EXAMINATION: A polygraph examination will be administered to all police recruit finalists to verify application and background information.

ORAL INTERVIEW: After successfully passing the written examination, credit check, background investigation and polygraph, an oral interview will be held before a board consisting of the police chief, police department officers, and the civil service director.

PSYCHOLOGICAL EVALUATION: All applicants for beginning positions who have successfully passed all phases will undergo a psychological and an emotional health examination.

HIRING PROCEDURES

ELIGIBILITY ROSTER: After successfully completing the written examination, you become a candidate and your name is placed on the Police Officer Recruit Eligibility Roster. The candidate's placement on this roster is determined by the total points accumulated from the written examination and veteran's preference points...five (5) extra points are given to veterans of the armed forces with an HONORABLE discharge; or active reserves indicating good standing from their commanding officer. The candidate with most points is listed first on the eligibility roster and so-forth in descending order of total points. This eligibility roster is good for one (1) year unless all the candidates are hired before the end of the year. If at any point you fail the credit check, background investigation, or oral examination you will be dropped from the roster and notified.

HIRE DATE: As the Police Chief needs new Human Resources, the Chief selects the candidate to be hired from the eligibility roster. Normally, the individual with the highest score is selected first. A candidate may be "bypassed" by the chief. If a candidate is "bypassed" three times, he/she will be dropped from the roster. When a candidate is selected he/she will be notified by the Civil Service Director to report for duty on a specified date.
